

Equal Opportunity Policy Statement

It is our company policy to comply with local, state, and federal fair housing laws. These laws require the type of services provided to a homebuyer are not influenced by the buyer's race, color, sex, religion, handicap, marital status, national origin, or other classes that may be determined to be protected classes. Our company is not authorized to discuss with any other customer or client the composition of any neighborhood or area based upon protected classes. Neighborhood information can typically be secured from local schools, police departments, government offices, or from residents from the area. Further, our company is not permitted to select homes or other property for prospective buyers on the basis of neighborhood composition or protected classes.

If you ever feel your relationship with our office did not receive equal rights because of any protected class, please contact us.
